

Mr Prakash is a world class cosmetic surgeon in his own right.

I've known him for 24 years and never regretted any procedure. In fact he has recommended all my cosmetic procedures but one. That said he is very ethical and would never undertake a procedure that would be unsuitable.

As well as being an excellent surgeon Mr Prakash has an eye for beauty and a natural instinct to enhance and improve one's features.

I can honestly say all my surgeries have been a work of art but never fake looking.

My only concern is where do I go when he retires!
